Students with a conferred MS degree in Math, Science, or Engineering may count up to 21 credit hours of previously completed course work towards the 33 required hours. If applicable, list courses from a previously conferred degree below. For credit, you must include a copy of unofficial transcripts listing these courses with this form. These course credit hours must be approved by the student's research advisor and the department's Graduate Committee. You may also be asked for course syllabi or other related materials for each course.
